

Jeff Jordan for U.S. Congress Announces Endorsement from Thomas Homan, Former Acting Director of the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE)

“I’m conservative when it comes to endorsing political candidates, but I want to go on record in support of Jeff Jordan for U.S. Congress in Virginia’s 8th congressional district,” said former Acting Director of the U.S.

Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Thomas Homan. “When he was the republican nominee for the same office in 2020, he impressed me with his strategic vision and what he had to say on the issues then, and he continues to do so now. He brings excellent credentials to the table with nearly three decades of military service in the intelligence field. He brings vast work experience to assessing and defending against foreign threats at the tactical, operational, and strategic levels at various posts and agencies, including time at the Department of Homeland Security. Without hesitation, I support and ENDORSE Jeff Jordan, and I ask that you do the same. Our nation will be better off with him in Congress.”

“As the Acting Director of Immigration and Customs Enforcement, Thomas Homan understands that immigration is a pillar of our national identity, but the rule-of-law is the foundation upon which that and all other pillars stand,” said Jeff Jordan. “He and I agree that the process of immigrating to the United States must be done lawfully. I’m proud to have his ENDORSEMENT and recognition of my lifetime of service in defense of this nation. I will continue to honor my oath of service as a member of Congress.”

Thomas Homan has worked to keep our country safe for over 35 years with positions in the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement. His endorsement reflects the great importance being placed on immigration issues today as well as his confidence in Jeff to meet the challenges that lay ahead.
